

In accordance with the proclamation put in place by governor Inslee, our office is temporarily closed. We will continue to see dental emergency patients during this time; such as pain, infection or severe discomfort.

If you have a true dental emergency, call our office and you will be prompted to speak with Dr. Navid directly.

For all other inquiries, please call or email us.

Meanwhile, please follow the CDC guidelines and maintain social distancing!